Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Foreign Tribunal Citation Law, 1912.

2. In and for the purposes of this Law (unless the context otherwise requires):—

“ Foreign Country ” shall mean and include any country other than Cyprus, and “ foreign ” shall mean of or belonging to such country.

3. Where in any civil or commercial matter pending before a Court or Tribunal of a foreign country, a Commission Rogatoire or Letter of Request from such Court or Tribunal for service on any person in Cyprus of any process or citation in such matter is transmitted to the Supreme Court by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies with an intimation that it is desirable that effect should be given to the same, the following procedure shall be adopted:—

Procedure to be adopted in the service of citation and the payment for such service.

- (1.) The Letter of Request for service shall be accompanied by a translation thereof in the English language, and by two copies of the process or citation to be served, and two copies thereof in the English language.
- (2.) Service of the process or citation shall be effected by the process-server whom the High Commissioner may appoint from time to time for the purpose, or his authorized agent.
- (3.) Such service shall be effected by delivering to and leaving with the person to be served one copy of the process to be served, and one copy of the translation thereof, where it is to be served upon any native of Cyprus, drawn up in the language of such person, and in all other cases drawn up in the English language.
- (4.) After service has been effected, the process-server shall return to the Registrar of the Supreme Court one copy of the process, together with the evidence of service by affidavit of the person effecting the service sworn before the Registrar and verified by the certificate of the Registrar and particulars of charges for the cost of effecting such service.
- (5.) The particulars of charges for the cost of effecting service shall be taxed by the Registrar of the Supreme Court, who shall certify the correctness of the charges, or such other amount as shall be properly payable for the cost of effecting service. A copy of such charges and certificate shall be forwarded to the Chief Secretary.
- (6.) The Registrar of the Court shall transmit to the Chief Secretary the Letter of Request for service received from the foreign country, together with the evidence of service, with a certificate appended thereto duly sealed with the seal of the Court for transmission through the Secretary of State for the Colonies to
