TO PROVIDE FOR THE REGULATION OF WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

C. W. ORR.]

[June 10, 1913.

1. This Law may be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy Law, 1913.

Short title.

2. In this Law:—

“ Wireless telegraphy ” means any system of transmitting messages or other communications by means of electric galvanic or magnetic signals without the aid of any wire connecting the points from and at which the messages or other communications are sent and received, and includes any apparatus for transmitting or receiving such messages or other communications.

Interpretation.

Provided that nothing in this Law shall prevent any person from making or using electrical apparatus for actuating machinery or for any purpose other than the transmission of messages.

3. The High Commissioner in Council may whenever he shall deem it expedient to do so licence the establishment of any wireless telegraph station or the installation or working of any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in Cyprus or on board any ship registered in Cyprus.

Licences for wireless telegraphy.

4.—(1.) No person shall establish any wireless telegraph station or instal or work any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in Cyprus or on board any ship registered in Cyprus except under and in accordance with a licence granted in that behalf by the High Commissioner.

(2.) Every such licence shall be in such form and for such period as the High Commissioner in Council may determine and shall contain such terms, conditions and restrictions on and subject to which the licence is granted as the High Commissioner in Council shall consider desirable in the public interest.

Penalty and proceedings.

5.—(1.) If any person establishes a wireless telegraph station without a licence in that behalf or instals or works any apparatus for wireless telegraphy without a licence in that behalf he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months and in either case be liable to forfeit any apparatus for wireless telegraphy installed or worked without a licence, but no proceedings shall be taken against any person under this Law except with the previous sanction of the King's Advocate.

(2.) If a Judge of a District Court or of the Supreme Court is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for believing that a wireless telegraph station has been established without a licence in that behalf or that any apparatus for wireless telegraphy has been installed or worked in any place or on board any ship within the jurisdiction without a licence in that behalf he may grant a search warrant authorizing the person to whom it is addressed to enter and inspect the station, place or ship and to seize any apparatus which appears to him to be used or intended to be used for wireless telegraphy therein.

Regulations.

6.—(1.) The High Commissioner in Council may make regulations for all or any of the following matters:—

- (a.) For prescribing the form and manner in which applications for licences under this Law are to be made;
- (b.) For prescribing the fees payable on the grant of any licence;
- (c.) For regulating the manner in which apparatus for wireless telegraphy on board a merchant ship of any nationality in the waters of Cyprus shall be worked so as to prevent interference with naval signalling or the working of any wireless telegraph station lawfully established, installed or worked
