

(4.) An alien with respect to whom a deportation order is made may be detained in such manner as may be directed by the High Commissioner and may be placed on a ship about to leave Cyprus and shall be deemed to be in legal custody whilst so detained, and until the ship finally leaves Cyprus.

(5.) The master of a ship about to call at any port outside Cyprus shall, if so required by the High Commissioner, or by an immigration officer, receive an alien against whom a deportation order has been made, and his dependents, if any, on board the ship, and afford him and them a passage to that port and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage.

Saving for diplomatic persons, etc.

6. Nothing in this Law contained shall be construed as imposing any restriction or disability on any duly accredited head of a foreign diplomatic mission or any member of his official staff or household.

Offences and penalties.

7.—(1.) If any person acts in contravention of or fails to comply with the provisions of this Law or any order made thereunder, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Law.

(2.) If any person aids or abets any person in any contravention of this Law, or knowingly harbours any person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for believing to have acted in contravention of this Law, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Law.

(3.) Where a person lands in Cyprus in contravention of this Law the master of the ship or the pilot or commander of the aircraft from which he lands shall, unless he proves to the contrary, be deemed to have aided and abetted the offence.

(4.) A person who is guilty of an offence against this Law shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or, on a second or subsequent conviction, twelve months, or, in either case, to both such fine and imprisonment.

24 OF 1922.

TO PROVIDE FOR THE SUPERVISION OF MISSIONARY EDUCATIONAL OR MEDICAL WORK BY PERSONS OF ALIEN NATIONALITY.

MALCOLM STEVENSON.]

[May 13, 1922.

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Missionary Educational and Medical (Alien Regulation) Law, 1922.

2. In this Law :—

Definition.

A “ recognized society ” means a Christian society or organization which the High Commissioner in Council may by order declare to be a recognized society for the purposes of this Law.

3. Every missionary or employé or member of a recognized society not in communion with the Church of Rome, the Orthodox Church, or other Oriental Churches, who is not a British subject, shall, before he shall commence or continue his work in Cyprus, transmit to the Chief Secretary to the Government a document of guarantee in the form prescribed by the Conference of Missionary Societies in the United Kingdom or by the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, as the case may be, and duly signed or countersigned by an official of the Conference concerned duly authorized in that behalf. Provided always that the High Commissioner may by a permit under his hand and for such period as he may prescribe allow any such missionary or employé or member already engaged in such work in Cyprus to continue such work pending the receipt of the said document of guarantee.

Recognized societies not in communion with the Church of Rome, the Orthodox Church or other Oriental Churches.

4. Every missionary or employé or member of a recognized society in communion with the Church of Rome, who is not a British subject, shall, before he shall commence or continue his work in Cyprus, transmit to the Chief Secretary to the Government a document of guarantee in the form prescribed by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and signed by the Superior of the House of the society in the United Kingdom and countersigned by an authority duly nominated in that behalf by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster: provided always that the said Superior of the House of the society in the United Kingdom shall be a natural born British subject. Provided always that the High Commissioner may by a permit under his hand and for such period as he may prescribe allow any such missionary or employé or member already engaged in such work in Cyprus to continue such work pending the receipt of the said document of guarantee.

Recognized societies in communion with the Church of Rome.

5. The High Commissioner in Council may by order from time to time add to the societies declared to be recognized societies and may declare any society no longer to be a recognized society.

Recognized societies may be added or declared no longer to be recognised societies.

6. In the event of a recognized society ceasing to be a recognized society any document of guarantee granted as provided in sections 3 and 4 shall be deemed to have been made void and of no effect.

Document of guarantee to become void if society ceases to be a recognized society.

