

No. 63 OF 1932.

A LAW TO IMPOSE A TEMPORARY LEVY UPON THE
SALARIES OF CERTAIN PERSONS EMPLOYED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CYPRUS.

A.D. 1932.

63 of 1932.

R. E. STUBBS,]

[14th December, 1932.

Governor.

BE it enacted:—

1. This Law may be cited as the Levy on Salaries Law, 1932. Short title.

2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires— Inter-pretation.
“Government servant” means any person employed by the Government of Cyprus but shall not include any teacher:

“salary” means the salary attached to an office or post and includes any special addition to such salary granted personally to the holder for the time being of such office or post (known as personal allowance) and duty allowance and any other allowance attached to an office or post but shall not include any duty, travelling, subsistence or other allowance or remuneration to cover expenditure which a Government servant is liable to incur in connection with his official duties.

“teacher” means any male or female teacher appointed under the Elementary Education Laws, 1929 to 1932, or any Law amending or substituted for the same.

3. It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council by Order to impose a temporary levy at the rate and in the manner specified in such Order upon the salary of every Government servant and teacher and to exempt from such levy any class of Government servants or teachers who, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, would suffer undue hardship by the imposition of the levy. Power to impose a levy on salaries.

4. No deduction shall be made from the salary payable on leave granted prior to retirement to any Government servant or teacher who has been given notice of the abolition of his appointment before the commencement of this Law, or who may be given notice of such abolition at any time during the continuance of this Law. Exemption of retrenched Government servants or teachers when on leave.

Deductions made under this Law not to affect pension or gratuity.

5. No deduction made under this Law shall affect the computation or amount of any pension or gratuity granted upon final retirement to any Government servant or teacher under any Law or regulation relating to pensions or gratuities.

Time of deducting temporary levy, etc.

6. Any temporary levy under this Law shall be deducted by the Treasurer at the time of payment of salary and shall be paid into the General Revenue of Cyprus.

Validation of present temporary levy.

7. All deductions made from salaries of Government servants and teachers by way of temporary levy since the 1st day of October, 1931, are hereby validated.

Duration of Law.

8. This Law shall remain in force until the 31st day of December, 1933, and shall then expire:

Provided that the Governor in Council may with the approval of the Secretary of State by Order declare that this Law shall remain in force until a date to be fixed in such Order.

This Law was published in the Cyprus Gazette No. 2260 of the 16th December, 1932.

No. 64 OF 1932.

A.D. 1932. A LAW TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO CO-OPERATIVE
64 of 1932. CREDIT SOCIETIES.

R. E. STUBBS,]

[14th December, 1932.

Governor.

BE it enacted:—

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Co-operative Credit Societies (Amendment) Law, 1932, and shall be read as one with the Co-operative Credit Societies Laws, 1914 to 1929, (hereinafter called the "Principal Law").

New section substituted for section 19 of the Principal Law.

2. The following section shall be substituted for section 19 of the Principal Law (as set out in section 2 of the Co-operative Credit Societies (Amendment) Law, 1928):—

"Audit.

19.—(1) The Registrar shall audit or cause to be audited by some person authorized by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf the accounts of every registered society once at least in every year.