No. 27 of 1948.

A Law to Amend the Law providing for the regulation of Wireless Telegraphy.

Winster,]   [31st August, 1948.
    Governor.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

Short title.

9 of 1913
4 of 1927
22 of 1934

1. This Law may be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy (Amendment) Law, 1948, and shall be read as one with the Wireless Telegraphy Laws, 1913 to 1934, (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Law "), and the principal Law and this Law may together be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy Laws, 1913 to 1948.

Repeal of section 3 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

2. Section 3 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

" Licences for wireless telegraphy.

3. The Governor may, whenever he shall deem it expedient to do so, grant a licence for the establishment or maintenance of any wireless telegraph station or for the installation or the working or maintenance of any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in the Colony or on board any ship registered in the Colony."

Repeal of section 4 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

3. Section 4 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

" Establishment, etc., of wireless telegraph station, etc., without licence prohibited.

4.—(1) No person shall establish or maintain any wireless telegraph station or install or work or maintain any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in the Colony or on board any ship registered in the Colony except under and in accordance with a licence granted in that behalf by the Governor.

(2) No person shall sell, deal, let on hire or otherwise dispose of any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in the Colony except under and in accordance with a licence granted in that behalf by the Governor.

(3) Every licence granted under the provisions of this section shall be in such form and for such period as the Governor may determine and shall contain such terms, conditions and restrictions on and subject to which the licence is granted as the Governor shall consider desirable in the public interest."

4. Sub-section (1) of section 5 of the principal Law (as set out in Law 22 of 1934) is hereby repealed and the following sub-section substituted therefor:— Repeal of section 5 (1) of the principal Law and substitution of new sub-section.

> " (1) Any person who acts in contravention of sub-section (1) or (2) of section 4 or in contravention of section 7 or who fails to comply with or deviates from any of the terms, conditions or restrictions of any licence granted under this Law shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both and the court trying the offence may order that any apparatus, the property of the accused, in respect of which the offence had been committed shall be forfeited."

5. Section 7 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the deletion therefrom of the words " the High Commissioner in Council" whenever they occur and the substitution therefor of the words " the Governor". Amendment of section 7 of the principal Law.

6. Any licence granted under the provisions of the principal Law and subsisting on the date of the coming into operation of this Law shall be valid and effective as if granted under the principal Law as amended by this Law. Subsisting licences to be valid and effective.

H. G. RICHARDS,
31*st August*, 1948. Acting Colonial Secretary.
