

SUPPLEMENT No. 2

TO

THE CYPRUS GAZETTE No. 3479 OF 26TH JANUARY, 1950.

LEGISLATION.

THE STATUTE LAWS OF CYPRUS

No. 3 OF 1950.

A LAW TO REGULATE NIGHT WORK IN BAKERIES.

A. B. WRIGHT,
Governor.

[16th January, 1950.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

1. This Law may be cited as the Bakeries (Night Work) Short title.
Law, 1950.

Interpretation.

2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires—
 “bakery” means any place in which bread, pastry or other flour confectionery is made or manufactured by way of trade or for purposes of gain;
 “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Labour;
 “inspector” means an inspector of the Labour Department;
 “work incidental” in relation to the making or manufacture of bread, pastry or other flour confectionery includes slicing, wrapping, or otherwise preparing bread or flour confectionery for sale or distribution, but save as aforesaid does not include work in or incidental to distribution.

Prohibition of night work in bakeries during certain hours.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Law, no person shall engage or shall employ any other person in the making or manufacture of bread, pastry or other flour confectionery or in any other work incidental thereto in any bakery between the hours of ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the following morning, except on Mondays when the hour shall be four o'clock in the morning instead of five o'clock:

Provided that the Governor may, by notification in the Gazette, vary the aforesaid hours between the first day of June and the thirtieth day of September in any year as may be specified in the notification but so that there shall always be an interval of seven consecutive hours between such hours:

Provided further that this section shall not apply where, owing to a sudden breakdown of machinery or plant, it is necessary to complete the work during the prohibited hours.

Power of Governor to provide for exemptions from, and modifications of, the restrictions of the Law.

4. The Governor may by order provide that the restrictions imposed by this Law shall not apply, or shall apply subject to such modifications as may be specified in the order, in respect of work in bakeries—
- (a) in the preparation of yeast for bread-making;
 - (b) for the purpose of providing supplies for public holidays and feast days;
 - (c) for the purpose of providing supplies to meet seasonal demands in holiday resorts;
 - (d) in connection with employment for the purpose of meeting a sudden and unexpected demand for bread or any other unforeseen emergency; and
 - (e) in any other circumstances or for any other purpose in or for which the Governor is satisfied that it is desirable that special provision for work at night should be made.
