 follows :—

Short title.

19 of 1949
19 of 1950

1. This Law may be cited as the Aliens and Immigration (Amendment) Law, 1951, and shall be read as one with the Aliens and Immigration Laws, 1949 and 1950 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Law"), and the principal Law and this Law may together be cited as the Aliens and Immigration Laws, 1949 to 1951.

2. Section 2 of the principal Law is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 2 of the principal Law.

(a) by the insertion in sub-section (1) in the definition “ alien ”, immediately after the words “ British subject ” (line 1) of the words “ or a citizen of the Irish Republic ”;

(b) by the insertion in sub-section (1), in its proper alphabetical order, of the following definition :—

“ ‘ approved port ’ means a sea port or an air port declared by the Governor to be a port of entry or a port of departure for the purposes of this Law ; ”;

(c) by the deletion from sub-section (1) of the definition of “ passport ” and the substitution therefor of the following definition :—

“ ‘ passport ’ means a valid passport or other document issued by a competent authority establishing the nationality, if any, and identity of the person to whom it refers and enabling such person to travel from one country to another ; ”;

(d) by the deletion from sub-section (1) of the definition of “ port of entry ”;

(e) by the deletion from paragraph (c) of sub-section (2) of the words “ was born in ” (lines 1 and 2) and the substitution therefor of the words “ is a native of ”.

3. Section 3 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

Repeal of section 3 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

“ Approved ports.

3. The Governor may declare by notification in the Gazette any port in the Colony to be an approved port for the purposes of this Law.”

4. Sub-section (1) of section 10 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the deletion therefrom of paragraph (d) and the substitution therefor of the following paragraph :—

Amendment of section 10(1) of the principal Law.

“ (d) being an officer or member of the crew of a ship or aircraft of a friendly State, he is permitted to enter the Colony by the immigration officer at an approved port.”

5. Section 11 of the principal Law is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Law.

(a) by the insertion in the marginal note thereto, immediately after the word “ entering ”, of the words “ or leaving ”;

(b) by the deletion of sub-section (1) and the substitution therefor of the following sub-section:—

“(1) No person shall enter or leave the Colony except through an approved port.”;

(c) by the deletion therefrom of sub-section (4) and the substitution therefor of the following sub-section:—

“(4) The master of a ship and the pilot of every aircraft arriving from any place outside the Colony or departing from the Colony, shall furnish the immigration officer with true and accurate lists of the names of all passengers in the ship or aircraft together with such other information as the immigration officer may require. Such lists shall be signed by the master or pilot, as the case may be, and shall be supplied in such numbers as may, from time to time, be specified by the Chief Immigration Officer by notice in the Gazette and every passenger in the ship or aircraft shall supply the master or pilot, as the case may be, with true and accurate information as may be necessary for the purposes of the lists.”

Amendment of section 13
of the principal Law.

6. Section 13 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein, immediately after sub-section (4), of the following sub-section:—

“(5)—(a) The power of deportation conferred by this section shall, notwithstanding anything in this Law contained, extend to the deportation of any person coming within any of the categories enumerated in paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) of sub-section (1) of section 6:

Provided only that such person is not a British subject and possesses the nationality of a foreign state at the time an order for deportation is made.

(b) A person, who is ordered to be deported under this sub-section, shall be deported to some place in the country the nationality of which he possesses or to such other place as the Governor may, with the consent of the Government of such place, direct.

(c) The Governor shall have power to appoint, by warrant under his hand, a custodian of the movable and immovable property of any person against whom a deportation order has been made under this sub-section and who has been deported from the Colony in pursuance thereof and may make regulations for the administration by the custodian of such property, until such time as the deportee may appoint his own representative or make other arrangements regarding such property, and generally for the better carrying out of the purposes of this paragraph."

7. Paragraph (i) of sub-section (1) of section 18 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following paragraph substituted therefor:—

"(i) wilfully contravenes or fails to comply with any regulations made under this Law;"
