

SUPPLEMENT No. 2

TO

THE CYPRUS GAZETTE No. 4089 OF 7TH NOVEMBER, 1957.
LEGISLATION.

THE STATUTE LAWS OF CYPRUS

No. 29 OF 1957.

A LAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE TRANSFER OF THE PROPERTY AND ASSETS OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ST. BARNABAS SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND TO THE GOVERNOR.

JOHN HARDING,]
Governor.

[1st November, 1957.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

WHEREAS Dame Louisa Storrs, by deed, made the 6th day of June, 1932, conveyed to trustees the property in St. Barnabas School for the Blind (hereinafter called “the Blind School”) together with certain funds to be utilized for the furtherance of the objects of the Blind School;

And whereas the Director of Education by the same deed conveyed to the said trustees certain lands pertaining to the Blind School ;

And whereas the buildings of the said Blind School and the Lands pertaining thereto were sold by the trustees by virtue of an Order made by the Supreme Court on the 5th day of July, 1934, and whereas new buildings were constructed elsewhere on Government Lands ;

Cap. 247.
18 of 1951.

And whereas during the year 1955, the Loan Commissioners acting under the Public Loans Law, loaned to the trustees the sum of £7,000 of public money to be used in the construction of new buildings for the Blind School ;

And whereas the trust fund is now insufficient for the proper operation of the Blind School ;

And whereas the Trustees desire to place the Blind School on a more permanent footing for the benefit of the Blind of the Colony ;

And whereas it is the intention of the Governor to provide for blind children the facilities which the trust has hitherto provided and, to this end, to establish and continue a place for the residence, education and use of blind children ;

And whereas the Governor and the Trustees have agreed that the Blind School, all property pertaining thereto, and the management and control thereof shall vest in the Governor ;

And whereas doubts have arisen as to the proper mode of vesting the said property and the management and control thereof in the Governor.

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the St. Barnabas School for the Blind (Transfer) Law and shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of July, 1957.

Vesting of property in the Governor.

2. The ownership of all movable and immovable property now standing in the name of the Trustees of the St. Barnabas School for the Blind is hereby vested in the Governor for the purposes of maintaining a school for the blind in the name of St. Barnabas and the Governor shall take over and, subject to the provisions of section 4, carry on the Blind School.

Termination of trust.

3. The trust established under a deed made on the 6th day of June, 1932, between Dame Louisa Storrs, wife of Sir Ronald Storrs, K.C.M.G., C.B.E., of the first part and Robert Noel Henry, Acting Director of Education, of the second part and the Director of Education, the Social Worker and the Treasurer (therein collectively referred to as "the Trustees", which term included the Trustees for the time being), of the third part, is hereby terminated and the trustees thereunder are hereby released from their obligations and duties under the aforesaid trust.
